

The International Society for Rapid Response Systems

Members FREE Webinar 12th December 2020

Dear Colleagues,

Due to the global COVID pandemic we will not be holding a face-to-face meeting this year.

Instead, we will be holding a 4 hour interactive webinar on the 12th of December 2020 starting 10am East coast time in North America, and xxxx time insert your country's time

We have an amazing line-up of expert international speakers who will present up to the minute topics relating to Rapid Response Systems world wide.

The webinar is FREE to attend for members of the iSRRS. Members are also able to submit an abstract for a chance to be selected to present at the webinar.

The provisional program and how to become a member can be accessed via the link below:
